

The Week's Best

A

Wild Rose

(Tuesday 19.00)

This TV drama is about a young private detective employed by a team of New York businessmen who send her to Brazil to look into a series of hotel robberies. When she gets there, she discovers that the hotels, which are owned by the businessmen, have been empty for the last two years and the local authorities have no record of any robberies.

B

Animal Planet

(Wednesday 23.00)

This is a classic black-and-white film from the forties in which astronaut Charlie Huston crash-lands on a planet ruled entirely by animals. It is a first-class suspense adventure which also looks at the human condition, although this is not always a successful part of the film.

C

Strange Encounter

(Saturday 21.00)

Suspense is skilfully built up in this clever, small-scale supernatural story. A young couple view a deserted old house that they are interested in buying. They meet a strange old lady who tells them of the mystical powers of the house and how previous owners have been able to travel back through the centuries to meet their ancestors.

D

The Longest Walk

(Tuesday 21.30)

Ffyoona Campbell is nearly there.

All she has to do now is walk the length of Britain and she has succeeded in walking the world. Tonight she drinks coffee in a tent a story to Janet Street-Porter before she sets the Pyrenees mountains.

E

Rubicon 5

(Thursday 20.30)

This is a TV film being used to launch a new fiction series. It has impressive special effects, a strong, believable cast of characters who transport the viewer to the twenty-third century. The action takes place in underground cities where the environment is controlled by computers.

F

New Science

(Friday 19.30)

This popular half-hour science magazine continues in its twenty-ninth year, proving itself to be a television survivor in the television world. Tonight it is presented by Carol Vorderman who introduces five regular features which include computer-driven cars and in-flight television bowling.

G

There and Back Again

(Sunday 22.00)

Paul Theroux's account of his recent journey from London to Japan and back makes ideal material for the evening's travel slot.

Based on his own novel, the progress of his journey along the railways of Europe and Asia (Victoria to Istanbul...) acts as a fascinating travelogue. The inhabitants gradually shift from the West to the East.
